Dear Lawrence:

STATOTHR
STATOTHR

You will remember I wrote to you concerning [REDACTED] on July 13, 1951. I have had a letter from [REDACTED] saying that he had gone to Washington, taken the tests and gone through the usual interviews, and was then told that within three months he would be notified of his acceptance, and told of the salary that he would receive. I do not know anything about his abilities or special talents, but the kind of treatment which he has received from the organization points out the ill will created among those who are given that kind of what is described as a run around.

Sincerely yours,

STATOTHR
